

This Saturday Accents will be closed. I will be on a plane to Boston to attend another round of meetings related to strengthening the needlework industry. I went shopping for “winter” clothes so that this southern gal can tolerate the cooler temperature of the northeast. I am hoping to see spectacular colored leaves as the seasons change and enjoy a little free time sightseeing in downtown Boston. I’ll be back in the shop on Friday, October 13th. Fred will be available to help from Tuesday-Thursday and to host Wednesday’s Sit N Stitch.

We’ve restocked some older Louisiana charts that we haven’t had in the shop for many years. I will get these uploaded to the website, but not until after I return from the trip to Boston. Meanwhile, the books are in the shop. If you stop in you can purchase a book.

Sit N Stitch – Crescent Colours Night Thursday, October 19th – 6:00 p.m.

Bring your stitching and enjoy an evening of conversation and have the added bonus of meeting Sharon Crescent, owner of Crescent Colours overdyed floss. She’ll be visiting a friend in Gulfport who will drive her over to spend a couple of hours with us so that she can meet stitchers from the New Orleans environs. If you can get away for the evening please come so that she’ll feel welcomed.

Wanted: sorting volunteers

Sunday, October 15th – 1:00 p.m.

If you are available on Sunday afternoon, October 15th please get in touch with me. I need help sorting through 70 boxes of donations, beginning around 1:00 p.m.

🌀 Katrina FREE Shopping Spree 🌀

Sunday, October 22nd – Noon – 6:00 p.m.

We’ll be giving away stitching supplies to local and gulf coast residents who lost their stashes to Katrina. Please come and shop through the many boxes of items that have been donated from stitcher all across our country. Bring a shopping bag or two to take your treasures home. It would be greatly helpful if each of you could tell everyone you know about the event – perhaps you could send a copy of this e-mail. We have a lot of stitching supplies to give away and we really need to get the word out to local and gulf coast residents who have need of supplies. Email me if you need more information.

Sunday, October 22nd – 5:00 – 6:00 p.m.

All stitchers are invited to shop the last hour of the Katrina FREE Shopping Spree, whether OR NOT your stitching supplies were damaged. Persons who lost their stashes have first dibs, but we really want to find homes for the thousands of items in our care. So set your clock for 5:00 and PLEASE COME TO SHOP.
