COZUMEL, HERE WE COME...

SHOP HOURS THURS., FRI., SAT. 10:00 AM—3 PM

In just 48 hours we'll be aboard Carnival's Fantasy stitching our way to Cozumel and back. There will be 27 of us sharing the Conference Room on the ship, which, I'm certain, will look more like a stitching room than a conference room within 30 minutes of our arrival. We have 9 guests coming along, and I imagine they will keep themselves busy partaking in the many activities available aboard ship. While Fred & I are hosting this stitching get-aweigh, Angela will be minding the shop. If you wish you could be coming along, note that we'll be cruising again in 2009. Register now and be part of our group.

EXTREME MAKEOVER HOME EDITION

STITCHING FEATURED, SUNDAY NIGHT, OCTOBER 26TH

Debbie Rowley (Deb Bee's Designs) posted this message on the shop owner message board:

In August our local stitching group was asked to participate in Extreme Makeover Home Edition, by stitching a project that was to be the focal decorating point in one of the bedrooms. We stitched all night to complete the project (about 15 of us) with a time-lapse camera set up to capture the "action", then were interviewed the next day. We don't know how much of any of it will actually make it to the show by the time they've edited it. Hopefully, at least the project will be shown! I'm hoping for at least a little national exposure for needlearts! The episode will air Sunday night (Oct. 26) on ABC affiliates.

4TH SUNDAY SIT & STITCH & SHOP

Unless you want to fly to the Fantasy somewhere in the Gulf of Mexico, we won't be around for stitching this Sunday. The next planned date is November 23rd.

A thought! Thank heaven money doesn't buy happiness. If our retirement funds are less, at least we can be happy stitching our stash!

BOOKMARK STITCHING DAY
2ND SATURDAY OF MONTH

I've moved the Bookmark stitching day from Tuesday evening to the 2nd Saturday of the month from 9:30—11:30 a.m. Hopefully this will allow you an opportunity to stitch without neglecting your children's homework and study time.
