FLAT-FOLD CLASS AKA STANDING EASEL

Commentary after class—Let's do it again
Saturday, March 28, 2009 9:30 a.m.—3:30 p.m.

There was barely room to work on the tables but the students were awesome! Everyone left with their Standing Easel finished or almost finished. Angela used a new Accents chart for the demo piece, which was a benefit for me because I was able to introduce Accents' newest chart in the article above. We are going to offer this class again on March 28th - - - BUT THERE ARE ONLY TWO SPACES AVAILABLE. The class fee is $35. You will need to stitch a small design in time for class. Before beginning your stitching, you need to bring the design and the stitching fabric by the shop for approval, so that we avoid the challenges we faced in our first session. You will receive a supply list at that time for the embellishment materials you will need to bring to class. All fundamental assembly supplies will be provided.
