BOOKMARK STITCH-ALONG - THIS SATURDAY, NOV. 7TH 1-3 PM

It's the first Saturday of the month and time for the monthly bookmark stitch-along. Join me in the shop and bring your needle and thread. I'll be happy to provide a bookmark and a chart.

RETAIL ONLINE SHOW: Beginning at 2 pm Thursday, Nov. 5th thru the evening of Sunday, Nov. 8th this new show will "open". The show is similar to the Online Needlework Show with one exception. During the ONS anyone can view the "booths", but only shop owners can purchase. During this show, you will be able to purchase retail from the individual vendors who offer a purchase option. To place orders, you will need to fill out the Customer Info Form on the sign in page. This form asks for your contact info and your email address not your credit card information. You will be contacted by the vendor you order from for your payment information. The show link is at the end of this article. Accents Inc and Needle News will each have a "booth". There are only 20 spaces available to showcase items, so the selection will be limited on the show page. I am participating because I hope to connect with stitchers throughout the country letting them know that we are here in case they Continued on page 2...

Saints Spirit - alive & thriving in New Orleans

The new Saints Spirit chart is printed and in stock in the shop. It contains two designs, the Saints helmet and the #1 Fan. Each design is available in two sizes, a small and a large version. I'll add the chart to the Accents website today for online ordering. Meanwhile.... were you able to stay positive during Monday night's game? I knew the team would be 7 & 0, but didn't realize the game would be so tense. We had several great playmakers that carried the team to victory. I designed the crossword format at right featuring the names of the key players. I'll send the chart as a free pdf if you email with "Crossword" in the subject line of your email. Keep your faith steady, we have a 12 more games to play and win.

Continued from page 1... visit New Orleans and want to visit the shop. If you see something in a designer's "booth" that you would like, I would be grateful if you would allow Accents to acquire it for you. Those of you who are in Accents often know I feel strongly that local, walk-in shops are vital to the needlework industry. I ask those of you who shop the show, if you want local shops to survive so that you can touch and feel product, you place your orders with retail shops before online only shops and both of those vendor types before ordering direct from a designer. Many designers are using the show as a showcase only and will not have ordering options. If you want any products from any of those designers, send me an email and I will be very happy to order the item(s) for you. Since this is the first time for this show, I am interested in hearing your opinions (all of your opinions) including those that I really won't want to hear. If you "attend" the show by clicking on the link, send an email to accentsinc@cox.net with Online Show in the subject line. Tell me about your experiences, your likes and your dislikes, and whether you ordered from a LNS (local walk-in shop), an OOS (online only shop) or a designer. I will send an Accents to discount coupon to everyone who emails and conduct a drawing from the emails. One lucky email respondent will win a $50 Accents gift certificate.

November 5-8 is the date for the first Retail Online Needlework Show. Click this link or paste it into your browser to access the show:
